POSSIBLE STUDY SESSIONS OR DISCUSSION GROUPS BEGINNING IN THE AUTUMN

Dates, Times and Locations for either or both will be confirmed depending on interest

Would you like to know more about Catholic belief and 'being a Catholic'?

Perhaps you are not a Catholic but you enjoy joining us for Mass on a Sunday and would be interested to learn more about the Catholic faith?

Perhaps you already feel you would like to become a Catholic?

Perhaps you are a Catholic but feel you have missed out somewhere on so much of your Catholic upbringing?

Maybe you are an adult Catholic who missed out on Confirmation when you were young, and would now like to look at filling that gap?

Perhaps you are just someone who is curious about Catholic belief and practice?

Whatever the reason for your interest might be, please mention it now to Dcn Dominic or Dcn Paul, as it is hoped to put on some sessions this Autumn and we need to know who would be interested in coming along.

'MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS'

Deacon Dominic will be leading a seven week group for anyone interested in exploring Pope Leo's first Encyclical on 'AI and all that'.

The group will start in the Autumn.

We live in a time of great transformations. Digital technologies and artificial intelligence are changing the way we work, communicate, learn, build relationships, and even understand ourselves.

Faced with these changes, we may feel excited, fearful, curious, or confused.

But as believers, we are called above all to live this time with discernment, hope, and responsibility.

If you might be interested in joining this group please talk to or email Deacon Dominic. Once he has received expressions of interest a day/time to meet will be decided based on people's availability.
