

Fr Hugh Writes:

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins today (18th) and concludes next Sunday, 25th. It is an important week in the calendar and though we have no formal time of prayer within the village, the week of special prayer is significant.

At this time, we can also remember Archbishop elect Dame Sarah Mullally as she prepares for the office of Archbishop of Canterbury and also Bishop Richard as Archbishop of Westminster.

The theme running through the week is 'One body, one spirit'. Taken from the letter to the Ephesians; Something that we can pray about at home or in one of our churches in the village. You may also wish to look up the week of prayer for Christian unity on your computers and so follow the daily prayer that way.

Fr Joe and I spoke briefly about having a time of prayer at Pentecost, which may help to bring the 3 churches together in late spring, Further news will follow as plans evolve.

2nd Sunday of the year which co-incides this year with Christian unity week is designated as Peace Sunday by our bishops. The theme this year is taken from Pope Leo's message which is 'Peace be with you all', the words of greeting from the Lord, and used by our bishops at the beginning of a liturgy; He continues, towards an 'unarmed and disarming' peace. Certainly, something for us all to focus our prayer this Sunday.

It perhaps teaches us that this is an exciting if challenging goal; peace should not rely on fear, threats, or weapons. Peace should have the capacity to resolve conflicts and open hearts through mutual understanding and hope.

Bishop John Arnold is president of Pax Christi and there is an opportunity for a retiring collection today for the work of Pax Christi.

The recent newsletter from Pax Christi is on the noticeboard in the narthex for you to read. I note that they are currently looking for a treasurer.

John Newman's requiem is tomorrow (Monday) at 11am.

Quiz night: The February date is quite close and for varying reasons we're not ready to put it together, so March 20th has been chosen as a later date, when winter is giving way to Spring.

On Tuesday, the deanery clergy meet principally to discuss and feed into the plans being established for a new bishop for our diocese. (I'm not sure how much influence we or anyone else has though, and I suspect inclusion of the wider community is not being invited!).

Tuesday is also a special day for Paul as he celebrates the anniversary of his birth in those post war years, the same year as my parents got married!

Snowdrops are beginning to flower in the garden and in Pinch Nose Green, we are halfway through the month, which means that winter is moving on.

Rain will have stopped any gardening activities for now.

Coffee Volunteers needed: We are getting rather short on volunteers for serving coffee on Sunday. Please could you tell MarieAnne if you feel able to help.

Gift Aid: The work of our Parish would not be possible without the support of our donors. An important part of this is Gift Aid as it means our parish can claim an extra 25p for every £1 you give at no extra cost to you! There are new posters in the narthex with information for anyone paying income tax or Capital Gains Tax and are not already part of the Parish gift aid scheme.

Please contact either our gift aid co-ordinator, Dan Valovin at ga.henfield@abdiocese.org.uk, phone 07792 554406 or speak to Father Hugh and we will talk you through what it means to Gift aid and, if you wish, help set you up on our Gift Aid System. Every year we re-claim about £6,000 in Tax paid on Donations through our Gift Aid scheme so this really does make a huge difference in the running of our Parish. Also, for ease of banking completing a standing order with the parish saves having to count and bank cash. A safer way these days for all. Forms for this are available, please ask.
